

ABOUT DSL

DSL currently offers the following suite of courses:

BA (Hons) in Professional Acting (3 year) awarded by University of West London. This 3 year course maintains the integrity of the vocational, practice-based training whilst ensuring the academic rigour required by a degree.

We also offer part-time and short courses throughout the year for aspiring actors and writers. DSL is a founding partner of the Federation of Drama Schools, and is accredited by the CDMT and inspected by Ofsted.

DSL is committed to valuing and fostering an equal, diverse and inclusive learning community, where considerations of widening participation and representation across all staff and students inform our activities and strategies, shape our processes and practices and centralise these values as intrinsic to the ethos and success of the institution. We welcome applications from the Global majority, those with disabilities and from other under-represented groups.
